If you're a baggage subscription holder, you're eligible to waive the service charges.

This applies only to United- and United Express-operated flights and when you check in your bags with United.

If you're an active-duty member of the U.S. military or an accompanying dependent, service charges for first and second checked bags don't apply when the flight is operated by United or United Express.

For more information, view the rest of the information on the Checked Bags page.

Prepay for your checked bags

<sup>1</sup>If you make a voluntary change to your trip and fly with a different airline for the first leg, the policies of the new airline will apply. If this airline isn't United or United Express, you may have to pay a different amount as well.

<sup>2</sup>Travel companions of Premier members have the same exemptions as the Premier member whose status provides the benefit. This only applies if they're traveling on the same reservation. Exemptions don't apply to group reservations of 10 or more customers.

<sup>3</sup>Baggage allowances are subject to change. Certain markets are subject to limits on checked bags.

<sup>5</sup>For all United Economy tickets, Premier Gold members can check two complimentary bags at 70 pounds (32 kg) each for travel between the U.S., Canada, Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands. For travel to and from select international markets, Premier Gold members can check three complimentary bags at 70 pounds each.

<sup>6</sup>For tickets issued on or after June 17, 2019, for travel mentioned in the Premier Baggage Exceptions table, Premier members will be allowed two bags weighing up to 70 lbs. (32 kg) when flying to or from SDQ, MGA, GUA, SAP, TGU and HAV.
